DITCHLING MUSEUM

FRIENDS' ASSOCIATION

Ditchling Museum, situated at the centre of this picturesque village, houses a comprehensive collection that celebrates rural life and the work of the many artists and craftspeople who have chosen to live here. Early in the 20th century, Eric Gill came to the village and founded the Guild of St Joseph and St Dominic on Ditchling Common. Along with Gill, other artists' work on display includes that of David Jones, Bernard Leach, Frank Brangwyn and Ethel Mairet.

IF YOU HAVE ENJOYED YOUR VISIT, YOU MIGHT LIKE TO JOIN OUR FRIENDS' ASSOCIATION.

THIS WILL GIVE YOU:-

- Free entry to the Museum
- Three newsletters a year
- Notice of the Friends' many social and fund-raising activities
- The chance to give practical help as a volunteer
- An opportunity to be involved in local research with the Ditchling History Group
- The friendship of other like-minded people committed to preserving our local and national heritage
